This puzzle is a crossword with 9 theme entries (colored blue in the grid), where a movie title is given, but with a word or letter sequence changed to be the name of a common cheese in a punny or fun way. The whole cheese name is represented in a single square, indicated by the circled letters above.

The solver finds the matching cheese pictured at the bottom, which are in alphabetical order by cheese name, and puts above it the crossing letter from the clued down word (these are the circled letters in the grid). This spell out "MOUSE HUNT" and solvers are intended to find the DVD of this movie in Matt's collection of movies.
